INTRODUCTION.

IN THE Tract now published, we have collected and translated the Papers in the Secretary of State's Office, illustrative of Slavery and the Slave Trade under the Dutch. As the Documents are authentic, they furnish reliable Material for a Chapter in the early History of our State at present unwritten, and hitherto but partially known.

To the Dutch undoubtedly belongs the questionable Distinction of having introduced Negro Slavery into the Colonies, now the United States of America. "About the last

Smith's General History of Virginia, Ed. 1627, P. 126, Richmond Ed., II, 39. of August" (1619), says John Rolfe, the celebrated Husband of Pocahontas, writing from Virginia, "came in a Dutch man of warre, that sold vs twenty Negars."* Oldmixon refers to the same Event, but leaves

* This Event is generally stated to have occurred in 1620; but a careful Perusal of Smith shows that it took place in 1619. Mr. Bancroft, Hist. U. S., 1st Ed., I, 189, quotes Beverley as the original Authority for this Fact. Beverley only copied Capt. Smith, without acknowledging the Source of his Information; of which Circumstance Mr. Bancroft does not appear to have been aware.

the Impression that the Vessel was a Merchantman. "The Merchant British Empire in America, Ed. 1741, I, 369. sold 20 Negroes, which were the first Slaves that were brought thither (to Virginia) from Guinea."

At this Period a Class of Adventurers, called "Guinea Traders," resorted to Africa; another Class, called "Virginia Traders," resorted to America. One or other of these, it is supposed, landed the above mentioned Negroes.

In 1621, all the Dutch private Companies trading to Africa and America were merged into one—the celebrated West India Company—which, by Virtue of its Charter, raised Troops, fitted out Men-of-War, and made other Preparations for entering the Field against Spain. This Power had, at that time, the almost entire Control of the Trade of Africa, from which Country it imported into Brazil, during the four Years ending 1623, Fifteen thousand, four hundred and thirty Blacks, to work its Sugar Plantations.

De Laet, Jaerlyk Verhael, 192.

In 1623, the West India Company commenced Hostilities, which it continued with considerable Vigor for several Years. At first, however, it placed no Value on the Negroes it captured from the Spaniards; for in 1624, Admiral Van Dort having overhauled, off the Coast of Brazil, a Spanish Vessel carrying Blacks from Angola to Bahia, took the Skipper and let the Ship and Blacks go, "not knowing," frankly confesses De Laet, "how useful and profitable they could be to them." Again, in 1627, the Dutch having overcome a Portuguese Ship, coming from Angola to Pernambuco with 600 Blacks on board, they derived no Advantage from the Capture, as those of Pernambuco refused to ransom the Negroes, some of whom were landed afterwards, with the Portuguese, at Fayal. And so late as 1631, two Ships from Angola with 850 Negroes, having been captured off Hispaniola and Sta. Martha, the Dutch Commanders not knowing what to do with the Blacks, let them and the Ships go.

Jaerlyk Verhael, P. 17.

Ibid., P. 120, 121.

De Laet, Ibid.,
P. 230, 270.

It will be seen by the above Resumé, that the West India Company having been absorbed in its Operations against the Spaniards, did not, for some Years after it first came into Existence, place much Value on the Slave Trade; and, as a Consequence, Slavery was not greatly fostered or encouraged in New Netherland.

It was not until the Dutch had reduced Pernambuco and other Parts of Brazil, and taken Curaçao, that they began to derive any Profit from the Capture of Slaves. In October, 1636, the Soutbergh took a Ship from Angola with 230 Negroes, which were sold shortly afterwards at the Reciff for 30,000 Guilders. A couple of Months later, another Lot of captured Africans, 340 in Number, was sold by public Auction at the same Place, and brought 67,000 Guilders. Between the Years 1623 and 1636, the Dutch captured from the Spaniards Two thousand, three hundred and fifty-six Negroes, whose estimated Value was 589,000 Guilders. Finally, in 1641, they reduced Loando St. Paulo in Africa; and thus, with this Slave Hive on the one Side, and Brazil and Curaçao for Slave Markets on the other, they obtained complete Control of the Slave Trade. The Ships of the West India Company now sailed direct from Holland to Angola with Articles of Commerce; got Slaves in Exchange, which they carried to Brazil, and returned to Holland with Sugar and other Produce of that Country.

We now propose to trace the Introduction of Slavery into New Netherland.

In 1625 or 1626, fix or seven Years after the Dutch had discharged the small Lot of Slaves in Virginia, the first Negroes were brought to Manhattan. Among them were Paul d' Angola, Simon Congo, Anthony Portuguese, John Francisco, and seven other Africans, who were far as we have been able to ascertain, by any immediate Increase of Negroes here; and it was not until after the Reduction of Loando that the Current of Slavery set northward to any great Amount.*

By an Edict issued in 1645, no private Dutch Vessel was allowed to trade farther North than Cape Florida, nor on any Account to the Virginias, New Netherland, New France, the Coast of Africa or Brazil. The Trade in these Countries was wholly monopolized by the West India Company.

In the Summer of 1646, the first Slave Ship, of whose Name we have a Record, arrived in New Netherland. She was called the Amandare. This Vessel touched at Barbadoes where "three Negro Wenches" were spirited away. The Remainder arrived at New Amsterdam in June, where "the Negroes were sold for Pork and Peas. In January, 1648, a Committee of the States General made a lengthy Report on the Affairs of the West India Company, in the Course of which they refer to the Fact, that Consequence of the unsettled State of Brazil, "the Slave Trade hath long lain dormant to the great Damage of the Company."
In order to revive that Traffic,

Port of Departure. She undoubtedly belonged to, or was chartered by, the West India Company.

Attention was turned to New Netherland.

N. Y. Colonial Doc., I, 246.

“That Country,” says the Report, “is considered to be the most fruitful of all within your High Mightinesses’ Jurisdiction, and the best adapted to raise all Sorts of this Country Produce, such as Rye, Wheat, Barley, Peas, Beans, etc., and Cattle; and that in more Abundance than can be done here, were it suitably peopled and cultivated. The granting of Freedoms and Privileges, hath indeed induced some Patroons and Colonists to undertake Agriculture there; but as the Produce cannot be sold any where except in the adjacent Places belonging to the English, who are themselves sufficiently supplied, those Planters have not received a Return for their Labor and Outlay. With a View, then, to give greater Encouragement to Agriculture, and consequently to Population, we should consider it highly advantageous that a way be opened to allow them to export their Produce even to Brazil, in their own Vessels, under certain Duties, and subject to the Supervision both of the Director in New Netherland, and the Supreme Council in Brazil; and to trade in off there, and to carry Slaves back in Return; which Privilege of sailing with their own Ships from New Netherland to Brazil, should be exclusively allowed to Patroons and Colonists, who promote the Population in New Netherland, and not to the Interlopers, who only carry Goods to and fro, without attending to Agriculture. By this Means not only would Brazil be supplied with Provisions at a cheaper Rate, but New Netherland would by Slave Labor, be more extensively cultivated than it has hitherto been, because the agricultural Laborers, who are conveyed thither at great Expense to the Colonists, sooner or later apply themselves to Trade, and neglect Agriculture altogether.

Slaves, on the other Hand, being brought and maintained there at a cheap Rate, various other Descriptions of Produce would be raised, and by their Abundance be reduced in Price, so as to allow, when Occasion would offer, of their advantageous Exportation hither and to other Parts of Europe."

The Trade to Africa was opened, in 1652, to the Colonists, who

But there is no Evidence that any Action followed the Permission of 1648, and the Remonstrance (Infra, P. 171) proves that the Contract not only had never been executed, but that the Parties declined executing it. The Records contain Instances of the Arrival of only two Vessels at New Amsterdam "directly from Guinea" with Slaves. These were the Wittepaert and Gideon. All other Importations of that Character were from Curaçao, except perhaps those of the Amandaré, which most probably were brought from Brazil.

The Ventures and Vessels in this nefarious Commerce, belonged either to private Parties in Holland, or to the West India Company. "We have resolved," write the Directors at Amsterdam in 1661, "not only that Slaves shall be kept in New Netherland, as we have heretofore ordered, but that they shall moreover be exported to the English and other Neighbours." The Spirit of Avarice and Greed deadened Conscience and smothered all Feeling of Humanity; and "the Promotion of Agriculture, Trade, and Population" was the thin Covering which glossed over the Infamy of the Trade.

In November 1661, the City of New Amsterdam became the Owner of three Negroes, which it obtained as a Present from the Director and Council. In 1664, "the City of Amsterdam did not blush to own Shares in a Slave Ship, to advance Money for the Outfits, and to participate in the Returns." But to the Credit of New Netherland, it is to be recorded that no Ship nor Merchant belonging to that Colony,

On the first of November, <sup>1659.</sup> two hours before day, have we <sup>Nov. 1.</sup> lost the Ship St. John, upon the Reef of Rocus and fled with the Boat to the Island of Curaçao, and left in the Ship eighty five Slaves, including Men, Women, Boys and Girls, and arrived on the fourth of this instant at Curaçao.

the Port here on the Seventh of November towards evening, came on the following Saturday in sight of Bonaire. When they were running towards the shore, they met an English Privateer or Rover whereof Jan Pietersen, a native of Denmark, was Captain, who came off the land and had the weather-gage of them, and commanded them to strike, threatening to fire if they did not obey. And this Deponent coming on board the aforefaid Privateer, was asked, Whence came he and Whither was he bound? He answered, from Curaçao and was bound for Bonaire. Whereupon, the Captain of the Privateer asked What business had he there. Thereupon, Deponent answered, To look up the Company's People. He, then said, I am going with my Ship and remain you here on board and let the Vessel go on. Which they did and came to Bonaire.  They ought first to go thither to save them. Whereupon the Privateers, who were in the bark, said, addressing the they were unwilling, but on a party of his men and a the Company's vessels.

On the morning of the following Monday, the aforesaid Vessel returned with the Lieutenant and Crew, leaving their Pirogue, which they had taken from the Spaniards, on the coast of Curaçao, still at Anchor at Little Curaçao, and towards evening set sail, taking with them by force the Company's Vessel on board of which he put his crew, leaving in it only Skipper Hans afore said with two men; and then took along by force on board his Ship the Deponent with the rest of the Crew of the Vessel and some belonging to the stranded Ship and proceeded on their Voyage to the Coast of Caraccas where and with the Company's vessel stranded a Spanish Pirogue, and afterwards proceeded to the little Island of David, where they came to an Anchor.

 Deponent having requested with the other men to be set on board their own Bark, they would consent that the Deponent only should go on board the bark or Vessel.
 The Rover remained there at Anchor and dispatched the Deponent with fourteen of said Rover's crew in the Company's vessel to Rocus, with orders to seize the Slaves as a good Prize, even though the Bark named the Young Brinda Cow, whereof Jan Ryckartje was Skipper, which had been sent thither by the Director to save the aforesaid Slaves, might have them on board.

The abovementioned Bark had lain four days by the Wreck, and had made fast a line to it in order to get the Negroes on board by that means and save them; but they could effect nothing through dread of the Negroes, and because the hands on board the Bark to Rocus, with the Slaves and even though the Young Brina and Jan Ryckartse which had been the Director and Slaves, might board. mentioned Bar. days by the and made fast der to get the l by that mean out they could through dread and because board the Bar were too few. They, therefore, resolved to await the arrival of the Vessel whereof the aforesaid Hans Stuyve was Skipper, in order thus to be stronger in hands, and by that means better able to bring the Negroes on board. Then, on arriving there, the Rover's fourteen men did, in the presence of this Deponent, run aboard them with the vessel, and attack and overpower them in a hostile manner, and took the boats of the Bark and the Sloop, all the Property of the Company, and with them hauled the Negroes off the Wreck to the number of eight four and having loaded the Bark the Brindled Cow with them, proceeded to David's island where lay the Rove who took all the Negroes on board.

Meanwhile, remained the Sloop or Vessel with the Deponent at Rocus, pretending still an inclination to fetch something, and came the day following, to David's island having saved some cooking Kettles and Cordage which all they took away to the Rove When this was accomplished the Deponent enquired if the they had hauled wood and quest, he at last obtained for answer, That the Sloop was of use to them and they would not restore it, and in case the Bark could be of service to them, they would retain her likewise, and further, every thing belonging to the Com-

Curaçao. However, since she is of no use, you can go in

In my presence,

NICOLAS HACK,

Secretary.

Appeared Jan Rykartsen, Skipper of the Company's Sloop, The Young Brindled
Cow, and says, that he by order of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director, had gone to Aruba. When there, received Instructions to proceed to Rocus, to save the Company's Slaves who were driven on shore there in the Ship St. John, coming from the Coast of Guinea. These orders I immediately executed. On arriving there, I used every diligence to reach the Wreck and so far succeeded as to get a line on board, and then two Negroes came swimming to the Boat by whom the line had been passed on board. It afterwards broke loose and in consequence of bad weather I could not go on board. I therefore, resolved to wait for Instructions to the Company's vessel whereof us, to save the Hans Marcussen Stuyve was ves who were Skipper, who, I had been e there in the notified, would come to help coming from to save the Slaves; the rather, Guinea. Their because my Crew being few in ately executed number stood, therefore, in re, I used ever fear of the Negroes.

On the 16th instant, arrived ch the Wreck the Vessel which attacked me eded as to ge in a hostile manner. Where-and then two upon the Deponent demanded, swimming to What are you about? He said, hom the line Shew your Sea brief which on board. I Deponent did. That, they loose and it said, was well, and added, he bad weather might remain in their service on board. I ed to wait for as long as he pleased, which he refused, being bound to serve not them, but the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director in the Company's service upon which he was dispatched. Nevertheless, he and his Crew were compelled to submit, and they forcibly took away his Boat, and with the Company's Slaves and the Boat of the aforeaid Vessel on board his own Ship, and commanded him to accompany them to David's island where lay the Rover, called the Castle frigate, the Captain whereof was Jan Pieterse

In the meanwhile, the aforesaid Vessel remained at Rocus with the Deponent's boat, in order, as they gave out, to save by their means, more Property, and they, indeed, brought off two more Slaves, some Elephants' teeth and other trifles, so that altogether they took 84 Slaves and

They all took and carried off the afore said Company's Vessel where Hans Marcussen Stuyve was Skipper, and told me, the Deponent, that even had I had said Slaves on board the Bark on their arrival at Rocus, they should have taken them away by force, and declared them good prize, because I had no Commission, but only a Sea brief. And the Deponent says, that they offered him money for the service they had received from his Bark and Crew; this he refused to take as such service was rendered forced us to run with them up the Roadstead of Bonayre, where we arrived about two hours before the Privateer. Some of my Men who were on shore, not knowing any thing of these proceedings, called out, If I were on board? The Privateer's men taking up the word before me, asked, Who? Thereupon they answered, The Skipper of the Ship wrecked at Rocus, adding, Had we been to the Slaves, or were we going to save them? The Privateers answered, That they were going to save them; manifesting great joy thereat, saying, when the Privateer

This Vessel was called The Castle frigate. Coming on board, the Captain enquired, How many Negroes he had left on his Ship? Deponent answered, Eighty. When he heard that, he sent the Vessel in which the Deponent came, to Little Curaçao, to bring his Lieutenant and some of his men, who were lying there in a Periauger, which they had taken from the Spaniards, to watch the Company's Vessels. Meanwhile this Deponent remained on board the Rover, and they returning to us in the Roadstead of Bonayre, the Rover permitted this Deponent to go back to the Bark, on board of which still were, Skipper Hans Marcussen afore said, with one of his hands, who had been compelled to go to Little Curaçao to fetch his Lieutenant and men. The Captain of the Rover having then placed his Lieutenant and Pilot, with some of his hands, on board the Bark, we set sail under compulsion, leaving Jan van Gaalen and some of our men behind, whom the Rover retained by force on board his Ship, not heeding any protests or requests as free men, which they themselves admitted us to be, having cognizance of the Commission granted by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director to the aforefaid Hans Marcussen Stuyve, as Skipper of the aforefaid Veffel, and that therefore, they ufed force and violence towards us who were not in any manner in their fervice, but indeed in that of the Company, to whom alone we owed Obedience, and that for the purpose of executing the orders of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director, to which end and to no other, were we fent out. On arriving at that place, we found the other of the Company's Vessels, named The Young Brindled Cow, whereof

Jan Ryckertsen aforefaid was Skipper, with three of my men on board, who accompanied him to Aruba, out of my Boat. Finding that no more than the two aforefaid Slaves had been saved, they took away, per force our Boat together with Jan Ryckertsen's Boat, all the property of the Company appertaining to the aforefaid Veffels, and with them, the weather moderating somewhat, removed the Slaves from my Ship, making use for that purpose of one of my Matroffes named

Martin Michielszen van Hulst, who was on board Jan Ryckertsen's Bark aforesaid. By his assistance, for the Negroes knew him and called him by name, the aforesaid Jan Ryckertsen got the line on board, and in like manner accompanied one of the Rovers at the time all the Slaves &c. were on board, and then came again swimming on board the Lieutenant of the Rover with two of his men, who then numbered four, having again brought a rope on board from the Company's Vessel by which they let all the Negroes who were capable of swimming, swam off to the Rift, whilst they brought those who could not swim in a Boat belonging to the aforesaid Vessels, to the same Rift, and having meanwhile made the other Boat dry inside the Rift, they brought in her on board the aforesaid Jan Ryckertsen's Bark, eighty two Slaves and two Sucklings. And this Deponent having, before they removed any of the Slaves, requested of the Lieutenant and his men belonging to the Rover, permission to go with his aforesaid Matros, he was unwilling to grant it until some of the Slaves had been removed out of the Ship, so that when this Deponent went on board his Ship there remained on board no more than about thirty Slaves. After all the Negroes had been removed from his Ship, this Deponent was conveyed to Jan Ryckertsen's Bark, with the Instructions which General Johan Valckenburgh had given him, together with all the Papers and Accounts of the said Commissary, relating to his freight and other business matters, done pursuant to the Compa-

Then the Deponent was conveyed by them with the aforesaid Bark and Negroes, to David's island, where the Rover lay at anchor waiting for us, leaving behind them the Vessel whereof Jan Marcussen Stuyve is Skipper, to save two Negroes whom the Deponent had left on board when he quit the Ship. That Vessel joined them the next day at David's island, bringing along the two aforesaid Slaves, some Kettles, Rope and about 70 pounds of Elephants' teeth, also some Flags, Compasses and other articles. The Rover having removed the Slaves and every thing else out of the Company's Vessels, took from the Deponent the Instructions given him by the General, with all the Commissary's Papers, notwithstanding the protests and requests to the contrary, giving the Deponent for answer, that all belonged to him. He, moreover, commanded them to remain by him until he had hauled Wood and Water, and afterwards took Hans Marcussen Stuyve's Vessel, saying he required her. He then made the Deponent remain on board Jan Ryckert-

And this Deponent with his Crew and that of the Company's Bark, took their course with the afore-said Jan Ryckertsen's Bark, to this Place where they arrived in safety on the 25th instant.

I despatch these few lines at present by the bearers hereof, the Commissary and Skipper of the Ship St. John, who coming from the Coast of Guinea with Negroes were wrecked on Rocus on the Voyage hither, leaving behind them some Eighty living Slaves, besides many and a greater number of dead ones who were starved on the way for want of food. Your Honors will please see in the accompanying Papers what diligence I have used to save those living; also, how the Sea Rovers, of whom I heretofore advised you, have carried off not only the Negroes, but also the best of the Company's Barks, as appears by the said Papers, to which and to the verbal Report of the aforesaid Commissary and Skipper I, for brevity sake, refer.

With submission to your Honors, it would in my opinion not be unadvisable if a suitable well fitted Vessel or Yacht could be obtained, carrying half a dozen guns. She could be employed in bringing Horses from Aruba to Bonayre and this place, many of which are now bitten to death by the Rattlesnakes there, and on such occurring occasions be manned with hands sufficient

As it is in the highest deof approaching so near us, I have chartered a small pri-you may, yourself, be able to see from it what transpired here, and having taken cognizance thereof to seal and send it by the first sailing Ship to Amsterdam to the Lords Masters.

If your Honor have an opportunity of writing to Jamaica, where I partly understand these Rovers have arrived, and where they have no Counter party and can make such Representation as they please to the General

Assistant Commissary, who arrived here yesterday from Virginia, in Mr. Foscom's Bark, appeared at the Meeting of the Director General and Council of New Netherland, and made known and declared as followeth:

That they, the Deponents, set sail from the Castle del Mina on the 21st February last in the service and for the account of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Incorporated West India Company, Chamber at Amsterdam, in the Ship the Arms of Amsterdam, at which time Jan Gerritsen Nuchteren, who died on the passage on the , was Skipper, with orders and command from the Hon<sup>ble</sup> General Jan Valckenburgh to repair to Loango in Angola, to take in a cargo of Slaves there, and convey them to the Island of Curaçao.

April 15. Having arrived at Loango and taken on board 101 head of Slaves there for account of the abovementioned Company,

On the 28th of said month, again set sail for Curaçao.

June 20. Sighted Curaçao, but could not reach said Island in consequence of the strong Current and stiff East wind. Having vainly endeavored, during three days and three nights, to laveer, and Water beginning to get very low, we were necessitated to change our course, and thus

July 2, came to the Salt ground of Cayman, which is one of the Cayman Islands, where, whilst engaged in taking Water and some Turtle on board, on July 6, about noon, five Ships came to anchor there; four with English flags and one under Portuguese colors, which last, called the Maria of London, whereof one Robert Douwneman was Captain, after she had taken some hands on board from the other Ships, immediately weighed anchor again, and came down on the Deponent's Ship, calling out, "Strike for the King of Portugal;" and at once, without giving time to strike, fired a shotted Cannon and a discharge of Musketry killing two Negroes dead, and wounding one Dutchman. After having thus fired, came straight on board, seized the Ship and Negroes, forced the Crew to go to the Ship aforesaid and plundered every thing. The Captains of the four English Ships abovementioned, one of whom was called Captain Gey and another, Captain Brommert, got some of the Negroes because they had furnished him men, but the Deponents do not know how many. After they had lain there some days, said Captain having first dismantled his own Frigate set her on fire, and

July 18, sailed thence with the aforesaid Ship, The Arms of Amsterdam, having enlisted some of the Sailors, giving out that he intended to sail to Montserrat in the Caribbean Islands, but as the Ship was a poor Sailer, and Water was short, he set sail for Virginia and arrived

September 10, in the Bay there.

September 19, arrived at Elizabeth's river, whence the Deponent went to Nancimon.

October 6, departed thence for this place in Mr. Foscom's Bark, and arrived here yesterday.

All which they declared to be true and truthful. In testimony whereof these presents are signed by them in Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, the 13th October A<sup>o</sup> 1663.

EFFORTS are just now making at the Hague before their High Mightinesses to effect a general Reform in all the Colonial possessions of this Company, and New Netherland also was remembered on that occasion. It has been already provisionally resolved that all Colonists of that Country shall be empowered to export their products of Flour, Fish, Beef, Pork, Peas, Beans, &c., in their own, or in chartered Ships to Brazil, and Angola; that said Ships may again take freight from Brazil to this Country, but that those who have completed their trade in Angola shall be at liberty to convey Negroes back home to be employed in the cultivation of their lands. By this resolution Your Honor will observe that we ourselves are at liberty to send a Ship with all sorts of Provisions to Angola and to convey Negroes back in return. Therefore please to embrace this opportunity as quickly as possible with the Provisions which you say you will have remaining.

Honorable, Respected, Wise, Prudent and most Discreet Gentlemen.

Gentlemen,

MY last to your Honors was by way of the Caribbean Islands, which I hope has been received long ere this. Since then safely arrived here the Freight-boat with those who were commissioned and sent for purposes explained in our previous dispatch, from this place, to the Caraquas, the principal Capital of the Main, lying nearest this Island, bringing with them the written Answer of the Governor of said locality, who, as represented, was favorably inclined to what was proposed to him in our letter, yet dared not manifest such in public, because, as he alleges, of the Limits agreed upon and concluded in the Articles or Treaty of Peace between his Royal Majesty of Spain and their High Mightinesses the Lords States General. The original Letter received from there, mentioned above, goes herewith, together with the Relation and Verbal Report of the disposition in which our two Commissioners, who were sent thither, found them. Nevertheless, in order to avoid suspicion and arrest, and on account of some Ships lying there, they did not find it expedient to deliver the principal and separate Memorial entrusted to them to the Governor and Chief Authorities of that place, the rather as no occasion or opportunity presented itself; for they had not been further than the beach in the Harbor and under the Fortrefs, whence they had been again difpatched without having been invited to Caraquas, the Capital. They were, however, by order and command of the Governor of Caraquas courteoufly entertained by the chief officers of the Fortrefs and place, of the Village and Harbor where they lay and were offered every thing they stood in need of for the profecution of their Voyage to Eufatius. They report that they have had many inquiries and follicitations for goods, fuch as Silks, Linens and Hats, but they excufed themfelves; trade to their Coafts, Harbors and Territories not being permitted, they dared not bring any thing with them. But on the other hand, if they had an opportunity, and would please to come to Curaçao, to purchase Negroes and Merchandize, they would be welcome there and accommodated to their satisfaction either for Specie, Hides, Tobacco or other commodities saleable in Europe. They had communicated to divers individuals the separate Memorial with which they had been entrusted, and had, according to opportunity, divulged it to them as amply and fully as was in their power, and stimulated some thereby to such a degree as to create hope that some time or other it will produce fruit. Your Honors can inform yourselves more fully on the subject by reference to the Reports and Documents sent herewith.

A certain Biscayan, an inhabitant of Caraquas had, among others, an interview with our Commissioners and gave them to understand that he had a new Vessel on the stocks there with which he was intending at an early day to make a Voyage along the Main from Caraquas hitherward, to certain little Islands lying in the neighborhood of, and opposite Bonayre, near the Main, to catch Turtle, and expected to be engaged there three weeks. It was his intention, according to circumstances, to take with him, as a venture, some Tobacco, Hides and other wares, in order, should people come there to trade with him and bring along such goods as would be of use to him, that he would have payment ready for them, and also have a better opportunity to converse about other trade.

With a view, therefore, to encourage those people more and more in our favor, I resolved, upon the abovementioned Report, by advice of and after communication with the adjoined Council here, to send one of the Company's Sloops, with a small cargo of such things as we could obtain here, as a venture thither. I found said Biscayan faithful to his proposal and promise, only he was prevented bringing any Hides or Tobacco with him, by being obliged, by the Governor of Caraquas, to convey some persons for the King to Porto Cabello, and in order not to create any evil suspicion in their minds, he dared not on this occasion bring any thing with him in his Bark except a little rough Copper or Slacken which he exchanged for the small cargo he bespoke from our people, and further made a Proposal and even wrote a Letter to me with his own hand, the original whereof is annexed, to purchase the Company's Negroes, that is, all that are here at present, on the following conditions, to wit; That the Company shall have a Ship with their own Crew here ready for the Negroes to embark in, and when resolved to accept his offer, to let him know by those recently with him, at the place designated by him, when he will without loss of time, repair in person to this harbor, and enter into an Agreement and terms for what articles and at what price the Negroes shall be delivered at the place where he hopes to bring them in safety and without danger; and that he will not receive any Negroes before payment for them shall be made on board the Ship, and he or his partner shall remain on board the Ship, with the Negroes until the Conditions and Agreement which will be made here, shall be fully carried out.

He reports that the place to which he says he will convey them is on the North side of Cuba, where the (Spanish) Nation has no Fortres nor means to prevent the project or to disturb them; also that he will leave his own Cousin, who is likewise related to the friends to whom he will convey the Negroes, here at Curaçao as a Hostage and security, until it be manifest that he shall have performed in good faith all he has promised; as more fully appears by the annexed Relation and report of Cornet Balthazar Van Efs and Johan Rombouts on the subject. He has requested an answer to this, for his information. I therefore wish your Honors' early Instructions hereupon, as to what I shall do, or omit in this matter, and that in the meanwhile I may receive a supply of provisions sufficient for the Negroes to enable me to wait for him.

I have received the Agreement and Condition which Your Honors have concluded with Mr. Henricus Matthias, merchant of Amsterdam, respecting the Negroes. On looking and reading it over, I find it very favorable for that gentleman, wherefore my impression is that your Honors' intention in concluding it is to begin and introduce the trade here. I shall not be wanting, God willing, in obeying and executing your Honors' orders and Instructions in this regard faithfully and to my best ability. Meanwhile, should it happen that Mr. Henricus Matthias's expected Ship did not arrive here, as it has not yet done, I shall expect your further order and answer whether we shall dare to proceed or not with the Negroes on the aforesaid Biscayan's presented proposals extended as above. In the strong hope and expectation that we shall be able to open a trade with our nearest neighbors, I shall purchase on your Honors' account a small cargo from Skipper Simon Cornelissen Gilde, so that they may at least find something on coming here; and our Vessels on passing near Bonayre may advise the Biscayan and the other Inhabitant already mentioned, what goods can be purchased here on arriving, taking a sample along to show them, should occasion present, and, at the same time, inform the Biscayan that

I have not received any orders to allow Negroes to leave the Island until payment for them has been made, and that I shall let him have, within four months after date, a fuller and more explicit answer which I hope I shall receive from your Honors in the meantime.

I am confident that on these Conditions he would readily give Two hundred pieces of Eight for a merchantable Negro or Negress, one with another, whilst he gave us to understand, that the price of Hides would be Eighteen shillings.

Vice Director BECK to the Directors at Amsterdam.

Curaçao, 28. July, 1657.

Gentlemen.

AS I advised your Honors in my last, I dispatched the Freight-boat to the appointed and prefixed place—a certain small Island near the Main—to the Biscayan and sent him word on the subject of his trading for Negroes, as I had informed your Honors more at large in my last. Whereupon he resolved to visit this place in person, in our aforefaid Freight-boat (Stygerschuit). He was accompanied by a certain Padre, named Friar Francis to purchase a few parcels of merchandize with one or two little Negro Girls.

I also sold to the abovenamed Biscayan, a small Negro Boy with a few goods, for which he had brought with him some Hides and Tobacco in our aforesaid Boat ; these are sent herewith as a specimen by the Ship Ostrich, the price of the Hides being Fifteen shillings each and of the Tobacco Six pieces of Eight the Arobe of Twenty five Pounds. I have sold to the aforesaid Padre Friar Francis, goods to the amount of Four hundred pieces of Eight and two little Negro Girls, all at a fair and reasonable price, in order to encourage and stimulate them to come to these Ports to trade, which I think is greatly for the Company's interest. Wherefore, I let the Padre have the two little Negro Girls @ One hundred and fifty pieces of Eight each, which together amounts to Three hundred pieces of Eight, and to the aforefaid Biscayan a little Boy @ One hundred and twenty pieces of Eight. The Merchandizes which I fold them were purchafed from the bearer hereof, Simon Corneliffen Gilde, Skipper of the Ship Oſtrich, expreſſly for this purpoſe on your Honors' account before their arrival, in order that our neareſt Neighbors on coming here may at leaſt on ſuch occaſion find ſomething for the aſking, until your Honors might ſend ſuch cargoes as the caſe requires, as I have partly explained in my laſt.

Although the abovementioned Padre, Friar Francis, did not bring with him any payment for what he purchaſed, yet could I not let him go away empty handed, as it was the firſt time, in conſequence of the converſation and verbal Agreement entered into with our Commiſſary and Skipper of the Freight-boat before his arrival here—that is, to let them return to the appointed place with what they had purchased, on condition that they should not land, much less receive possession of what has not been paid for here, until they have made payment therefor to the Commissary and Skipper of the aforesaid freight Boat, in good and sufficient Hides.

With regard to the trade in Negroes, the aforesaid Biscayan, now here, hath given me such explanations and further information on that point, that we can come to no other conclusion than that a good and favorable result is to be expected from it. He hath communicated to me the most direct and shortest route, how and in what manner not only a shipload of Negroes, but successively a cargo of good saleable Merchandise besides could be traded off. Were a Ship with necessaries in the harbor here, he is willing on receiving notice thereof at the appointed place, to come here and enter into such agreement with the Company from which as he firmly believes, he and the Company would derive great advantage.

The place the Negroes should be conveyed to is called Porto Velo, the staple place of trade. Permission can be obtained to dispose of the cargo freely there on paying One hundred and thirteen pieces of Eight for each Negro, which is the Royalty. But such permission is not given except to persons of their own Nation; but it can be obtained under the pretext that they had chartered a Dutch Ship and Crew to fetch and bring over the Negroes, and that the Negroes and Merchandize in the Ship are the property of their Nation.

Such is the manner in which the aforeſaid Biſcayan would contract for and purchaſe Negroes from the Company on the following Conditions: That he, or his companion, with five or ſix more of their Nation, ſhall embark at their own expenſe with the Company's Skipper, Commiſſary, Crew and Matroſſes in the Ship lying ready to ſail and proſecute with them their Voyage to Porto Velo, and after receiving a permit there from the Governor, ſell the Negroes which they know they can ſell immediately after their arrival at ſuch a high price that the outlay of the aforeſaid Royalty in order to obtain the Permit, may be eaſily repaid. Therefore, they will undertake this themselves, and pay to the Company, after safe arrival there, for each Negro and Negress between Eighteen and thirty years of age, Two hundred Reals or Pieces of Eight, in Silver bars or pieces of Eight; further they will be able to obtain there a proper permit to trade then to other places, to load the Ship with such cargo and freight as the countries supply and are most profitable to the country. In like manner, the price for the Goods being agreed upon and arranged here, the payment there for them shall be made in the same manner as for the Negroes, but the risk of the Sea and the expenses of the Negroes, until they arrive at the above place, must be borne by the Company, but when arrived there, they will be responsible for them. For the full performance of the Conditions which shall be made here on the part of the Company, the aforesaid Biscayan offers to stake his life, and even to remain here in person in the Fort, or to leave another responsible person here in custody of the Company at the risk of his life, if any fraud is, or has been intended or designed. And it is further conditioned that the Negroes in their minority, as well as old and deformed ones, must be disposed of at a special and lower price. On these terms he is resolved, at all times from now henceforth, whenever a Ship with Negroes will be ready here, at the time and place to be named where advice is to be sent him, to come hither and with God's merciful help faithfully to perform whatever is abovementioned.

The other Plan or proposal mentioned in my last, to run the Negroes in at the north side of Cuba, is not, he says, so feasible as this.

Curaçao, August, 1659.

Honorable, Valiant, Wife, Prudent
and most Discreet Sir.

Sir,

I NOW transmit to your Honor duplicates of what I have already sent by the Galiot New Amstel, Skipper Augustinus Heermans, and it will be very agreeable to me if I may be informed by the earliest opportunity of their speedy and safe arrival. I would not forego the present favorable occasion and opportunity of the Ship Spera Mundi, Jan Pieterßen Skipper, to acquaint you of the circumstances of this Island up to the present time (God be praised!) in regard to the Commerce with our nearest Neighbors. Hitherto there have not been imported as many goods as the demand requires, and especially the trade in Negroes at this place which the Company hath reserved to itself, or else all are sold.

There are lying here, at present, two Ships ready to sail hence for Fatherland, which occupy my whole time, so that I have not much leisure to write to your Honor at length. The one is the Company's Ship called the King Solomon, which arrived here on the 2d of July from Guinea, with Three hundred and thirty one Slaves. Of these I have sold 300 (or One hundred and fifty pieces of Eight each, to a certain Spanish trader whom I am daily expecting to come here and receive them, which I wish may occur before the departure of the aforesaid two Ships in order to be able to transmit the proceeds to the Lords Masters.

Franck Bruyn purchased out of the afore said lot of Negroes for your Honor, Two Boys and a Girl who go over in this Ship. I have done every thing possible to protect them against the cold. Franck Bruyn hath also purchased Two for Commissary Van Brugh, who likewise go by this conveyance on said Commissary's account. Your Honor will please to have such payment collected therefor from said Van Brugh for the Company, as you will consider just. Commissary Laurens van Ruyven hath also purchased Two young Negroes here for account of his brother the Secretary of your Province, at the same price as the lot sold for here, viz., One hundred and fifty Patacoons.* I am still in daily expectation of a Ship with Negroes. I wish they were come, even were they a thousand head. I expect the abovementioned merchant here, as already stated, to take away those of the King Solomon. He is well able and will eagerly buy the whole lot at once.

I have received orders from the Lords Masters to send your Honor against the Spring, some fifteen or sixteen Negroes whom I could have easily dispatched now, but we have no coarse cloth to clothe them, and are fearful that they will not be able to endure the Winter there. As Negroes will be plenty here in future, I thought it best, according to orders, to postpone sending them until the Spring, when I shall be sending a young Negro Girl for Mr. Augustinus Heermans according to his request. Meanwhile, I hope to receive for my instruction, your Honor's advice and order as to whether you will require any more Negroes than the above, and of what age and in what numbers you wish them sent.

1659. December 26, Director Stuyvesant writing to the Directors at Holland says :

"The Negroes purchased at Curaçao for *fl*140 @ 150 and paid for, cannot be sold here (at New Amsterdam) again at that price, either in Beaver or Tobacco, so that all the expences of going and returning are entirely lost."

Vice Director BECK to the Directors of the West India Company.

Curaçao, 4th Feb., 1660.

Noble, Honorable, Respected, Wife, Prudent and most Discreet
Gentlemen.

Gentlemen,

MY last to your Honors, dated 5. January, as per copy enclosed, was by the Ship Gideon, Skipper Simon Cornelissen by way of the Caribbean Islands.

* * * * *

You will learn from my last letters, and from the annexed papers sent again herewith, the fate of the Ship St. John, which was due here from Guinea with Negroes, and which according to your Honors' orders was to replace the Ship Die-men here. What causes us most grief here is, that your Honors have thereby lost such a fine lot of Negroes and such a fast sailing Bark which has been our right arm here.*

Although I have strained every nerve to overtake the Robbers of the Negroes and Bark, as stated in my last, yet have I not been as successful as I wished. I shall communicate the particulars to your Honors, God willing, by the Ship St. George, which is about to sail direct from hence this month. If no remedy can be found to prevent such Robberies, and villainous crimes as the carrying away of the Company's Slaves and Bark, and no prosecution and redress follow, they will not only persist therein, but even strike terror into the Spanish merchants who come here to trade.

Inclosed herein goes a Minute of what I have provisionally judged necessary, with the advice of the Council, to be done against them. Copy thereof has been furnished to Simon Cornelisse Gilde, to be used by him, according to circumstances. And although my zeal be hearty and sincere to pursue such Robbers, and as much as possible, to repair and make good your Honors' losses, yet have I been scrupulous, as I did not wish to do too much or too little. Therefore do I respectfully solicit your Honors to supply me herein with such orders, ample advice and power, that I may set to work and execute them unscrupulously against similar and such like Robbers, when occasion offers,

Honors' Ship Die as most of Ne- ing Bark m here.* ed every bbers of as stated not been I shall rs to your the Ship to sail di- n. If no vent such crimes as ompany's ofecution will not so that others may take example therefrom. Had we had here a fast sailing Yacht of fourteen guns, manned in proportion, we might, without doubt, have overtaken and again recovered by force or with good right, the aforesaid Negroes and Bark, and it grieves us that we for want thereof could not carry out our good intentions.

We regret exceedingly that such Rovers should have been the cause of the ill success of the zeal we feel to attract the Spanish traders hither for your Honors' benefit, by previous notices and otherwise, for the augmentation of Commerce and the sale of the Negroes which are to come here more and more in your Honors' Ships and for your account. What is lawfully done by English Ships with regular orders and Commission against their Enemies, even the Spanish Nation, and not against us, we must tolerate; but when most of the damage is inflicted without lawful order and Commission, not only on the Spanish Nation, but even on ourselves, it ought not to be tolerated, and should, by all ways and means, be driven from the Sea.

I have witnessed with pleasure your Honors' diligence in providing us here from time to time with Negroes. That will be the only bait to allure hither the Spanish Nation, as well from the Main as from other parts, to carry on trade of any importance. But the more subtly and quietly the trade to and on this Island can be carried on, the better will it be for this place and yours.

Inasmuch as Mr. Gysbert de Rosa, who is with me, is authorized by the private persons interested in the Ship Hope to apply to the Governor of the Havana, by whom we understand the Rover has been arrested, and to that end have sent to me such papers, letters and proofs as may serve for the recovery of said Ship and cargo, nevertheless up to this time have we had no opportunity to effect the work according to our good inclination, except that Mr. Gysbert de Roosa has recently sent his Yacht, The Young St. Paul, with a cargo to St. Jago de Cuba, by which we wrote conjointly a letter to the Governor at Havanna to be sent to him overland from Cuba, to give said Governor some premonition, until a more favorable opportunity shall present itself to carry out your Honors' intentions and those of the private friends who are interested.

I first received the contract entered into by your Honors with Mess<sup>rs</sup> Hector Pieterfen and Guillaume Momma, by the Ships Gideon and Love, after the Negroes that had come by the Ship King Solomon had all been sold, and although the Ship Eyckenboom has not yet arrived, two Spanish Vessels with a Yacht from Cadiz have cast anchor in this port on the 2d January. They are come pursuant to express orders to the Captain of the aforesaid Vessel Pedro Sorilbo by name, for the purpose of taking away those Negroes, according to contract; and Skipper Ewout Jansen has exhibited those orders to me, and this gave me to understand, that in case they should leave here without Negroes, the whole object of their Voyage would be thereby frustrated, and they should in consequence suffer excessive damages. I found myself, therefore, obliged to solicit as well the free-men as the Company's servants, to loan from their Plantations to the Company as many Negroes as they could possibly spare, under the promise that good stout Negroes should be returned in their stead, out of the first lot which would come for the Company. In this way, what with the Cape Verde Negroes, and those of the Company and of private individuals, I have collected together with great trouble Sixty two head. As there were among them some old and some young, two were deducted for them, as appears by the original Receipt transmitted herewith. They have accordingly paid me here for Forty six head, as per contract, @ One hundred and twenty pieces of Eight, amounting to Five thousand, five hundred and twenty pieces of Eight, leaving Fourteen head of Negroes, for which the aforesaid Mess<sup>rs</sup> Hector Pieterfen and Guillaume Momma are to pay your Honors in Holland, as is more fully set forth in the receipt to which for brevity sake I refer.

The aforesaid Captain, highly gratified and contented, sailed from here with his two Ships on the 15th January for Porto Bello, as he informed me.

I received by the Ship Gideon, from Cape Verde only Twenty eight Slaves, old and young, as appears by the receipt delivered to the Skipper. In consequence of their condition and age, they are not worth so much as the Negroes lately brought by the King Solomon. But I have since been informed that if a handsome lot of Negroes could, when opportunity offers, be imported from that place, those would proportionably advance in price.

What your Honors recommend to me in regard to Privateers, that they shall not be allowed to come here or hereabouts, I have fully communicated to our opposite Neighbors,* and to the Spanish Nation in other places. Few Privateers will come into our harbor, because they know that they are suspected here, unless they come into port in numbers under one pretence or another, to see if they cannot obtain some advantage over us for purposes of plunder, as the Rovers have indeed threatened us. Though well on our guard here against them, yet must our defence depend on human hands in such circumstances. The reinforcement your Honors have now sent in the Ship Love is not sufficient to oppose a great force, because, on the other hand, as many of the old Soldiers, whose time is expired, are going away as nearly balance the reinforcement just arrived.

With so few men we cannot resist any evil disposed Spaniards, if they should have any bad design in their heads, and be as strong as the two Ships which lately arrived here in our Harbor with full Two hundred and fifty hands. The same holds good in regard to the French and English Privateers, who heretofore have visited our Harbor, and we place as little confidence in the one as in the other. The Spaniards seeing that we are so weak, can get up one pretext or another, especially those who come from Spain, who look on this trade with a jealous eye. For, some Merchants who arrived in this port with the afore-said two Ships, have, as I am informed, alleged here to one and another, that the Trade which we carry on here with the Spanish Nation on the Coast or elsewhere, would not be permitted in Spain, and such a prohibition would be issued that no Spaniard belonging to any place would dare to come hither for the purpose of trade. On the other hand, I have understood from the Captain himself, that they are confident the Trade here will flourish more and more, and he hoped that his Ship, the St. Catharine, would return here thing, and said that they came Ship Eyckenboom, mentioned in the aforesaid Contract, has not arrived at this date, the said Governor has furnished me, the undersigned, with the abovementioned Sixty two Slaves, and on account of the old and young which are among the aforesaid Negroes, has allowed a deduction of two Negroes, so that there remain Sixty head in the clear, for which I, the undersigned, have here according to Contract, paid to the Governor aforesaid for Forty six head, @ One hundred and twenty pieces of Eight, amounting to Five thousand, five hundred and twenty pieces of Eight. Whereas, Fourteen Negroes remain still to be paid for, according to Contract in Holland by Mess<sup>rs</sup> Hector Pieters and Guillame Momma in Amsterdam, to Mess<sup>rs</sup> the Directors aforesaid, on presentation of this my receipt, to which end three of the same tenor are executed and signed in the presence of two undersigned trustworthy witnesses, whereof the one being satisfied the others are to be FOUR Negro Boys and one Negro Girl have, as you advised, been sent to, and received by me at the Ship Sphera Mundi; 3 on mine and 2 on Commissary Van Brugge's account, their price being left to our discretion. Upon this subject I must say, that the assignment sent to me by Frans Bruyn is unsigned. However, in order to avoid any difficulty, I left this time the choice to the Commissary who took the Negro Girl and one of the stoutest Boys. But greater difficulties have arisen in this wise:

One of the Five died on the passage hither; some were sick or have become so after arriving. To prevent any misunderstanding in future, the sold Negroes ought to be consigned to the purchaser by their names or marks.

As regards the price which was left to our discretion, in order to prevent any suspicion of self interestedness, I wish your Honor to inform me after the others have been sold, what price they brought.

I have observed by your despatch to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Directors, dated 3 September, forwarded by the Ship Sphera Mundi the 26 December last, that the Negroes were sold to Mr Corn' van Ool @ 140 pieces of Eight, viz., from 40 to 16 years; from 16 to 12 years, three for two; under 12 years, two for one.

We hope and trust that by complying with such price and terms, we shall avoid all suspicion of self interest. I am willing to take my share of the expence and risk of their passage hither, because I desired the Negroes for my own service and the promotion of Agriculture, not in the expectation of any gain, and therefore sent for young ones, in which regard the worthy Inhabitants, Christians, and those of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company, ought, I think, to be preferred before Spaniards and unbelieving Jews.

You will see by the enclosed extracts from my letter covering yours to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Directors, what I have proposed to them. It is therefore desirable and somewhat necessary that a fixed price should be set on Horses conveyed hither, or ordered from Curaçao, by private persons, as well as on Negroes as far as practicable, according to their ability and age, because the one as well as the other are most urgently required here for purposes of Agriculture and its advancement, and finally would tend to the greater advantage, trade and prosperity of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company and its subjects.

In regard to the Negroes which the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Directors ordered to be sent hither, they ought to be stout and strong fellows, fit for immediate employment on this Fortrefs and other works; also, if required, in war against the Wild Barbarians, either to pursue them when retreating, or else to carry some of the Soldiers' baggage; it being very apparent that we shall be constrained to wage a righteous and offensive War against them, for the peaceable possession once of the Land, and the avenging of numerous suffered affronts and murders. An important service would be conferred on the Company, on us and the Country if there were among the sold Negroes, some of experience who had resided a certain time at Curaçao.

Amsterdam, the 9th March, 1660.

NOW as regards the trade in Slaves, or Negroes, which the Inhabitants there at Curaçao might pursue, that is permitted to them as to other Merchants, with the understanding, however, that it is not to be at a lower price, for the reason that the Company here would thereby be seriously prejudiced. But as Agriculture there would be beneficially promoted by Negroes, and the advancement thereof is of great importance, and the prosperity of that State is, for the most part, dependent thereon, we have, therefore, concluded and even resolved to try an experiment with a parcel of Negroes which we shall have conveyed to your Honor by the first opportunity which a Ship or Ships may offer from Curaçao. These Negroes shall then be publicly sold to the highest bidder there, on the express Condition, nevertheless, that they shall not be removed thence, but be employed in cultivating the Land. To this end, an exact register shall be made and kept, as your Honor will see by the accompanying form of the aforesaid Conditions.

Proposed Contract to import Slaves into New Netherland.

THIS day, the undersigned Director and Council of New Netherland, thereunto authorized by Resolution of the Chamber at Amsterdam, on the one part, and the Owners of the Ship whereof is Skipper, burthen about Tons, on the other part, have agreed and contracted that a Permit and Commission in due form shall be granted to the aforesaid Skipper, to buy Slaves, and further to prosecute such advantage as said Owners shall deem expedient on the Coast of Africa; in like manner to return here to the Manhattans with the said Slaves and their further cargo, provided nevertheless that they shall not be at liberty, in regard to the Coast of Africa, to resort on the granted Permit to the Gold Coast, and therefore not to go Westerly further than Ardre or at most to Popo, on pain of the loss of the Ship and Goods laden therein, to which end the Directors and Council shall be at liberty to place a Supercargo on board said Ship, (whom the Skipper shall be bound to entertain in the Cabin,) and if necessary to cause the People therein to be sworn; for which aforesaid Permit and Commission the aforesaid Owners promise, on the return of the said Ship and before her discharge, promptly to pay to the Director and Council aforesaid, or their deputies, a duty of Fifteen Guilders for each Negro, without making any exception or objection thereto. Under bond of their persons and Goods, none excepted, with renunciation of benefit ordinis divisonis et excussionis, having entire knowledge thereof. Done New Amsterdam this proposed Contract.*

Honorable, Wise, Prudent Lords,
Petrus Stuyvesant, Governor General, and the Councillors of New Netherland, Curaçao and Dependencies thereof.

Honorable,

THE Undersigned Burghers and Inhabitants of this City New Amsterdam, your Honors' liege Subjects, most respectfully represent that they are inclined to a foreign Trade, and especially to the Coast of Africa, according to the Concession of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Directors granted in the year 1652, as a special privilege to the Inhabitants of this Place, in order to fetch thence Slaves and other Wares might be disposed of here and elsewhere, whereby this City and the entire Country would increase and prosper in Merchandize, Commerce, Population and more especially in the Tobacco Trade, to the advantage not only of these Inhabitants, but also of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> West India Company which would behold, in time, a vast, populous, and rich commercial Province spring up in these parts therefrom.

But it has appeared to them that those who would execute with Skipper or Merchant going to that Country a Draft of Partnership, which is beset and pinched by such precise Conditions, would risk their lives and Goods, and at best gain nothing, or run the risk of having Ship and Goods confiscated. For, besides the entire of the Gold Coast being excepted in that Concession, it appears that Cape Verde, Siera Leona, the Greyn (Pepper) and Qua Qua Coast are also excluded; for it is not permitted to resort further West, at farthest, than Popo Sonde. Moreover, the Gold Coast which from Cape Apollonia to Cape des Rodes or Mount Berique is reckoned 60 leagues, can be extended much further, as will be seen, to any place where Gold may be found. And as regards Slaves; for each head 15 Guilders must be paid, and then the payment for them in Tobacco or Beaver, is again taxed when shipped to Fatherland, which imposes too heavy a burthen on this hazardous Trade.

The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company, in the meanwhile, must perceive that our Neighbors the French, English, Swedes, Danes and Courlanders, are by means of the Netherlanders who repair to them, trading along the entire Coast, even under their strongholds, without any profit being derived therefrom by the Company; Yea, they suffer rather very serious loss thereby, as is manifest from the example of Arent de Groot who in the Year 1638, built a Fort at Cormantyn for the English, and of Hendrick Caerloff, the former Fiscal, who built another at Cape Corse in the Year 1650, for the Swedes.

Your Honors' subjects passing by these strongholds, take another course and as faithful subjects, address themselves to you, humbly praying permission to trade free and unobstructed in Ship or Ships, along the whole of the West Coast of Africa, that is, from Cape Verd to Cape Lopes d' Gonsalve, in all Bays, Rivers and Coasts, without any exception, the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company's strongholds alone excepted, according to the Rules and Orders, on payment, either here or in Hol- land, of such moderate duty as shall be agreed on. This doing, &c.

Director STUYVESANT.

Amsterdam, 11th April, 1661.

Honorable, Prudent, Valiant, Beloved, Faithful.

THE bearer hereof has safely handed us your Letter of the 9th ultimo, which came by way of New and Old England. The Necessaries required therein, not already sent, shall be forwarded to you in the Vessels now lying ready to sail direct thither.

This goes by way of Curaçao. And as we have observed by the enclosures thereof, that the greater portion of the Slaves conveyed thither by the Eyckenboom and New Netherland Indian, have been sold at a fair price, we have written to Vice Director Beck at Curaçao herewith, and ordered him to provide you with a fresh supply by every opportunity. We have done this the rather, because we have resolved not only that Slaves shall be kept in New Netherland, as we have heretofore ordered, but be moreover exported to the English and other Neighbors. This, however, on condition that on such occasion there shall be paid, on each exported Negro, a duty of Two Beavers, which is a small and light impost.

The reasons which have led us to the adoption of such Resolution, are, among others none of the smallest, the promotion both of Agriculture and Trade in those Parts, as herefrom a greater frequentation of the water communication between New Netherland and Curaçao, must necessarily follow, and tend accordingly to their prosperity. Thus the one will be supplied and provided with necessities by the other, which is a matter of great consideration in regard to foreign Possessions.

As your Honor observes, our zeal and care for the welfare of New Netherland, so must you endeavor to retain us therein and consequently not fail to send us, from time to time, such returns as may accrue there from the sale of the Slaves, in which case we shall not neglect to have your Honor supplied with others by every opportunity.

Herewith,

Honorable, Prudent, Valiant, Beloved, Faithful, commending you to God's protection we remain, The Directors of the West India Company, at the Chamber of Amsterdam,

C. WITSEN,
EDWARD MAN.

Director STUYVESANT to Vice
Director BECK.

Honorable, Wise, Prudent, right
Discreet Sir.

YOUR welcome Letter of the 31st of August of last Year, was handed to us in due course by the Bearer, in which is first mentioned the unfortunate loss for the Company on the Horses sent hither in the Ship Eyckenboom and Galiot New Amstel. You Honor will learn from the annexed return of the public sale, what they brought here in consequence of their emaciated appearance after having been refreshed during two or three months.

We have had better luck with the few Slaves sent hither at the same time. They were sold to the highest bidder, chiefly at Beaver's value, which differs little from Silver pay. I have retained some of the best for the Company. One with another they brought about  $\text{fl. } 440^*$  a head, less the freight.

On this point, we must not neglect to recommend, in case Negroes are hereafter sent in one and the same Vessel, some on the Company's, and others on private account, as happened in the Ship Indian, that on such occasions, the Negroes sent for account of the Company, or Individuals, may be distinguished the one from the other by some particular marks or tokens, either by a stripe on the clothing or otherwise, in order to prevent disputes and differences here, which we might easily have had here with the Owners of the Ship Indian if any had fallen sick or died on the passage, since they claimed to be entitled to the first choice, leaving the rest for the Company. This choice I also have allowed them, as there were no certain marks to guide us. * * * *

* Equal to $176.

Resolution of the Director and Council of New Netherland.

Friday, 2d September, 1661.

IN COUNCIL. Present —

The Honorable Director General

Petrus Stuyvesant,

Hon. Nicasius de Sille,

Johan de Decker.

WHEREAS, the Yacht New Netherland Indian arrived here yesterday from Curaçao, by which I have received on the Company's Account 36 out of 40 head of Negroes and Negresses, both young and old, that had been shipped in that Vessel, it is resolved in order to prevent expence and loss by death or otherwise, to sell them publicly on Tuesday next to the highest bidder, and to announce the same immediately every where by Notices.

It being taken into consideration in regard to the above subject, what pay the above Negroes should be sold for, it is by a majority of Votes resolved, to sell them for Beaver or Provisions, such as Beef, Pork, Wheat or Pease, at Beaver price; for if they are to be sold for Beaver or Cash down, or Tobacco at Beaver price, neither Burgher nor Farmer can purchase any, since there is no Tobacco, much less Beaver in cir-culatation among the People. By this means, a few persons only, to whom the Company is indebted, would have an opportunity to monopolize them in diminution of the debt, and that at a small price, because, as already stated, such only will be for their interest, whereby then, the Company will be frustrated out of the Beaver or Tobacco down, and we, also, shall be obliged to purchase a quantity of Provisions for the Garrison against the coming Winter, and in payment thereof take up Goods from the Merchants at the highest price, and next year again lose thereby the greatest portion of the Beaver. Therefore, for these and many other reasons it has been thought best to sell the aforesaid Negroes for Beaver or Provisions at Beaver price.

Director STUYVESANT to the Directors at Amsterdam.

Honorable, &c.

AS nothing of consequence has transpired since the departure of the Faith and Gilded Eagle, by which the condition of affairs had been explained at large, and nothing of any importance has since occurred, this Letter is principally intended to accompany Invoices, Muster Rolls of the Garrison, and a few necessary Documents.

* * * * *

Nos. 6 and 7 are two Lists, one of a lot of old, and the other of a lot of young, male and female Negroes, sent hither by Vice Director

the aforesaid Commissioners and Directors to participate with them in the costs and risk of the Trade of the aforesaid Slaves, for one fourth, in all respects the same as the Company, and that accordingly the abovenamed Directors and Commissioners shall also pay their portion in the moneys which are advanced to the Skipper of the Gideon, and the aforesaid Directors (of the West India Company) shall with all possible speed dispatch the Ship Gideon, chartered for that purpose by their Honors, according to the Charter Party, and let it pursue its Voyage accordingly; that the abovenamed Directors shall have the exclusive management of the aforesaid Trade and raise on bottomry the moneys required therefor, in the manner usual with the Company, and after the Voyage is completed, account for and settle with the abovenamed Directors and Commissaries for every thing; and that the aforesaid Commissioners shall give orders that their Officers, being notified of the arrival of the aforesaid Slaves at the Manhattans, shall repair thither to receive the aforesaid fourth of the said Negroes by blind lot, and give their share as above in the Trade, after delivery for each merchantable Slave from 15 to 36 years, being reckoned head for head as mer-chantable, and above 36 and from 15 to 8 years downwards, three for two, and from 8 years down, 2 for one, sucklings following the mother.

 All under express condition, that the abovenamed Directors and Commissioners must retain the aforesaid Slaves in their Colonie without allowing them to be sold to any other Nation outside the Colonie, or suffering them to be either di-

* * * * *

I N our last which we enclose, you were informed that we contracted with Symon Gilde, Skipper of the Ship Gideon, to export a goodly number of Slaves from Loango on the Coast of Africa, and to convey them by way of Curaçao to New Netherland; also that this City is a partner therein for one fourth part, as may be more fully seen by the Copies hereunto annexed.

As the Slaves are intended solely to promote Agriculture, which is the only means of making the State prosperous, so is it our express order, that the aforesaid Slaves shall be sold there only to our Inhabitants on the express condition, that they shall not be exported out of our district, but specially retained therein, to be employed in the cultivation of the soil, so that the great expense which we have incurred may not be fruitless, but that we may, in due course of time, reap the fruits which we promise ourselves therefrom. The aforesaid Ship with about 300 Slaves may, according to our calculation, arrive yonder in the month of June or July next.

As your Honor will be greatly relieved by this supply, you will therefore use every effort that one third part at least of the proceeds shall be forwarded hither in Beaver, in order that we may be enabled to pay the freight, or the greatest part thereof at farthest, on the arrival of the aforesaid Ship here, which we are bound to do by contract. Otherwise, we shall lose all ambition to continue such transmission of Slaves. This we commend to your Honor's special consideration.

MESS<sup>RS</sup> the Directors, and the Commissioners of the Colonie on the South River, have entered into a contract with Simon Cornelissen Gilde, Skipper of the Gideon, to transport hither a lot of Negroes for Agricultural purposes. These Negroes will, we hope, have arrived before this Letter reaches your Honor, or, at least, be embarked after its receipt. We shall therefore recommend that, being properly provided, they may be dispatched hither as speedily as possible. If it happen that Simon Gilde should arrive with the Negroes at the Island of Curaçao a month later than the Charter Party provides, say, the middle of August, the first instalment might reach here before or by the middle of September from Curaçao, and the remainder by the middle of October. In that event a fair price might be realized for them.

Conditions and Terms on which the Director General and Council of New Netherland propose to sell to the highest bidder a lot of Negroes and Negresses. 29 May, 1664.

THE Buyers shall immediately take possession of their purchased Negroes, and may use them as Bond Slaves, and also sell them to others.

But whereas, the meaning of the Directors is, to promote and advance the Population and Agriculture of this Province more and more, the purchased Negroes or Negresses shall not be sold, carried away or transported beyond this Province. Who so acts contrary hereunto, shall forfeit for each Negro or Negrefs,

One hundred Guilders, Beaver value.

Payment shall be made, one fourth part down, the remainder in Sep- tember or October next, in good Beaver at Eight Guilders the Skin, or in Merchandize, Beaver price, or in Provisions such as the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company may require, to be delivered here at the Manhattans at the following prices :

THIS day fortnight arrived here your Honors' Veſſel, the Spar- row, with Forty head of Slaves, ſent to us by Vice Director Beck to procure Proviſions and all forts of Timber work, six Ox Carts and a new Rosmill.       *       *       *

The Negroes and Negresses have all arrived safely and in health, but were, on an average, pretty old, and as the Skipper alleges, rejected by the Spaniards. The product of the greater part appears by the accompanying account of the public Vendue. They would have brought more, had they not been so old. Five of the Negro Women, who were, in our opinion, unsaleable, have been kept back and remain unsold. In like manner, Six Negroes also, to help to cut the required Timber and to perform some other necessary work for the Honorable Company.

Directors at Amsterdam to

Amsterdam, 24 June, 1664.

Honorable, Prudent, Valiant, Beloved, Faithful.

WE have heretofore advised you of our intention to let the Ship Gideon go from Curaçao to the Manhattans with her Slaves.
Having since then, and now for the first time, remarked the hostile and treacherous designs manifested by the English towards the Company's rightful Conquests on the Coast of Africa, where they have already mastered Cape Verd and taken 3 @ 4 of the Company's Ships or Yachts, we have come to a different determination. As your Honor also will not be left unmolested by them, for we understand that they have likewise sent 3 Ships with Men thither to the assistance of their Nation, and as the aforesaid Ship with Slaves might hereby be brought into difficulty, we have thought proper to send her first to the South River, to learn there from the City's Director how matters stand at the Manhattans. On learning the arrival of this Ship there, your Honor must immediately commission some one to go thither, to be present at the allotment of the Negroes, and to repair to the Manhattans with the share, or  $\frac{1}{3}$ th the part that is to fall to the Company; with this understanding, however, that if the abovenamed Ship had not brought thither above 200 head, there shall be left to the City at least 60 head, as we find ourselves under obligation to accommodate them with that number.

Herewith,

Honorable, Prudent, Valiant, Be-
loved, Faithful,

Commending you to God's merciful Protection, we Remain,

Your Good Friends,

The Directors of the Incorporated West India Company, Chamber at Amsterdam,

J. BONTEMANTEL,
DAVID VAN BAERLE.

Cc

Directors and Council of New Netherland.*

Curaçao in Fort Amsterdam, } the 21. July, Año 1664. }

Honorable, Valiant, Wife, Prudent
and right Discreet Gentlemen.

Gentlemen,

MY last to your Honors was dated 28 April, by the Company's Ship Muscb, which I not only hope has arrived in your parts long before your receipt of this, but ardently desire to see her return here every day.

Since then a handsome Genoese (genues) Ship, named the Sta Cruz, arrived here from Cartagena, with One hundred and sixty thousand pieces of Eight in Specie, to be all invested in Slaves through the Factors residing here on behalf of the Genoese Company, who, however up to this time have delayed doing any thing, by advice and order of their Principals, in the expectation that they will have concluded a new Contract with the Company, and that more Slaves may arrive here, so as to invest the entire Capital which they have brought for that purpose in their aforesaid Ship, in Slaves and to carry them away at once.

On the 8th instant, arrived here by way of Guinea, Angola, and Cayenne, the Ship Gideon, the bearer hereof, Simon Cornelissen Gilde, Skipper, with over Three hundred Slaves. I was in hopes by means of these and the supply of Slaves already here, to have enough to be able on the Advice and Order of the Company, to accommodate the aforesaid Factors for their abovementioned Specie, as then was their intent ; for they said, in case no seasonable advice or order was received from their Principals and the Company, that they would then contract with me for as many Slaves as were here at present, and might happen to arrive, to be paid for on delivery, in order to dispatch their aforesaid Ship, which was lying here at great expense. So they were expecting that they could have availed themselves on this occasion, for their Vessel, of the Slaves brought hither by the aforesaid Ship Gideon, when the abovementioned Skipper Simon Cornelissen Gilde brought me such ample Order and Instructions to the contrary, that I could not dare to change them, as your Honors will please to observe by the annexed Copies. Pursuant to said Orders

I am sending to your Honors herewith, by the aforefaid Ship and Skipper the number of Slaves to be seen in the accompanying Invoice and Bill of Lading to which, for brevity's sake, I refer.

And since now, in the first place, no more Slaves are to be expected here, the aforefaid Factors will have to content themselves with the Slaves which have been previously brought hither on the Company's account; and as many of the Slaves brought here by the said Ship Gideon are infected with Scurvy, I have therefore retained the greater number of these here and embarked others in their place from among those brought in previous Ships. When those are cured of the Scurvy, they can be delivered, in the place of the others, to the aforefaid Factors.

Bill of Lading for Three Hundred Negroes sent to the Manhattans.

I UNDERWRITTEN Simon, Cornelisse Gilde, Skipper under God of my Ship, named the Gideon, now lying in the Harbor of Curaçao, ready to sail with the first fair wind (which God shall vouchsafe) for the Manbatans in New Netherland acknowledge to have received between the Decks of my aforesaid Ship, the number of Three hundred Slaves, consisting of One hundred and sixty Men and One hundred and forty Women, all merchantable; which Slaves I promise to deliver (if God grant me a prosperous Voyage), with my aforesaid Ship at the said Manbatans to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director General Petrus Stuyvesant or his Order, on payment of my freight for the aforesaid Slaves, as agreed upon and conditioned by the Charter Party, and for the performance of what precedes, I pledge myself and all my Property and my aforesaid Ship with all its Appurtenances. In witness of the truth I have signed three Invoices, all of the same tenor, the one being fulfilled, the others are void. Written at Curaçao, the 21st July, Año 1664. (Signed)

SYMON CORNELISSEN GILDE.

Director BECK.

Honorable, Prudent, Wife, and very Discreet Sir.

OUR last Letter to you was by the Ship The White Horseman, Skipper Hendrick Jansen Stuyvesant, dated the 7th May last. * * *

Since then, viz., on the 24th May, arrived here in safety, God be praised, the Company's Ship Sparrow, Skipper Jan Petersen Groot of Dockum, by whom I received your Honor's Letter of the 28th of April, to which the following will serve as an answer.

The Slaves and Merchandize arrived safely according to Invoice and Bill of Lading. * * *

I have sold the Negroes that have been sent, at Public auction to the highest bidder, for Provisions, with the exception of Six of the Men, who are employed in the Company's service on the Works of the Fort, and Five Negro Women who, on account of their advanced Age, could not find a Purchaser, except at a very low figure. The remainder have been sold at prices mentioned in the annexed Copy of the Conditions of the Sale; being, in our opinion, a tolerably fair price for such a lot. Had they been better, there is not a doubt but they would have produced a much larger amount, as may be inferred from the price of a few who were sold for 600 Guilders* and upwards.

These Negroes have afforded us great relief in the purchase of Provisions for the Garrison. Otherwise, we should have been constrained by the low state of the Treasury, caused by the continued troubles, first with the Barbarians, and now at present with the neighboring English, to purchase Supplies by Bills of Exchange.

In our former dispatch, duplicate whereof we here inclose, we stated among other things, if it should come to pass that Simon Gilde arrived at the Island of Curaçao, with Negroes three weeks or a month later than intimated in the Charter Party, say the middle of August, therefore the sending of the Negroes hither should not be postponed, &c. Having reconsidered this, we have, for divers reasons, whereof one is, that the Right Honorable the Regents of the city of Amsterdam are interested therein one fourth part, thought it best and most justifiable, not to make the slightest alteration in the Charter Party which the Directors have concluded with Simon Gilde. Wherefore we request and recommend your Honor to regulate yourself by the said Charter Party in the forwarding of the abovementioned Negroes. But as we find ourselves burthened here by an unusually strong Garrison, for the support of which, exclusive of the monthly pay, we require considerable Provisions, for the purchase whereof we are not well provided; we, on that account, have need, yea great need of a few Slaves, in order to truck them for Provisions. Yet, for reasons already given, we deem it unjustifiable to send for the said Negroes, contrary to the Charter Party concluded with Simon Gilde.

Yet requiring a large quantity of Provisions both for this place and Curaçao, as we have already stated and more fully explained, should an opportunity offer to purchase any, funds would be absolutely necessary. Wherefore we recommend this seriously to your consideration; and if Simon Gilde arrive in season, to send us as many Negroes as circumstances will permit. If Negroes be scarce, which however we should prefer to have for the good and advancement of the country, according to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Company's Order, some other effects, either Money or Osnaburghs and other coarse Linen, or any thing else that is not needed for the public service, might be spared and bartered for Provisions. If Negroes, your Honor will please to bear in mind to have them sent off in time that they may probably arrive here before, or about All Saints, and that they be suitably provided against the cold.

30 July, 1694.

The Council of New Netherland to the Directors at Amsterdam.

* * * * *

MEANWHILE, God be thanked, the Ship St. Jacob arrived here in safety on the 13th instant, from the South River, and, two days after, the Ship Gideon, which sailed from Curaçao on the 21st of July with 300 Slaves, 160 Men and 140 Women, whereof 9 died on the passage. This is a very poor lot; indeed so poor do we believe, that we fear the most of them will remain on our hands, or must be let go at a very low figure, whereof more in our next.

Pursuant to the Contract which your Honors made with the Directors of the City's Colonie, we have delivered by lot the fourth part of the abovementioned Negro Men and Women, into the hands of Mr Peter Alrichs, Commissary of Indian Cargoes, and Councillor of the Colonie of New Amstel, who has been here for some time for the purpose of purchasing Oxen, Cows and Horses, to the number of 200 or thereabouts. * * *

The Colonie has received by lot for its fourth part, 38 Men and 34 Women. But as there were among these, as well as among those that fell to the Company, many above the age of 36 years, three of them must be counted for two. * * *

This serves merely to advise your Honors of the arrival of the above-mentioned Negroes who, though a very poor lot, as already stated, yet in our most deplorable state, will wonderfully relieve us, so that we and your Honors' Servants and Inhabitants, find ourselves greatly obliged, and gratefully acknowledge your care in the sending of the said Negroes. * * * *

land, 17 August, 1664. }*

(By Way of the South River, per the Eagle.)

WE the undersigned Director General and Council of New Netherland, hereby certify and declare that the bearer hereof, Symon Cornelissen Gilde, Skipper, under God, of the Ship Gideon, on the day after his arrival, being the 14th of August, hath delivered here on shore for account of Mess<sup>rs</sup> the Directors of the Incorporated West India Company, Chamber at Amsterdam, Two hundred and ninety head of Negroes, to wit, One hundred and fifty three Men, and One hundred and thirty seven Women, among whom in all were found by impartial Men as selected according to the Charter Party, Eighty nine which were judged to be above Thirty six years old; of which delivery, the above-mentioned Skipper, Symon Cornelissen Gilde, demanding proper Receipt to serve him agreeably to his Charter Party, with the abovementioned Directors, we have executed for him two of the same tenor, one whereof being satisfied, the other is to be null. Done Amsterdam in

*New Netherland, the 30 August,

Permit to transport Negroes.

THE Hon<sup>ble</sup> Director General informed the Council that Capt. Thomas Willet would accept 3 or 4 Negroes in payment of the Beavers due him by the Company, if he might transport them from this place to such other that he may think proper. Which being taken into consideration, it was, on question being put, Resolved to let him have 3 or 4 Negroes; because from the low state of the Treasury, it is not well known how else to satisfy him for the Provisions delivered last year, amounting to about Eight thousand Guilders; and Secretary Van Ruyven is deputed to inform said Willet thereof, and to agree with him about the price for the best advantage of the Company, and if possible to obtain from him as much as the General hath lately had from him for two of his own Negroes. Done 30th September, 1664.

I HAVE remarked, among other things, in your Honor's acceptable Letter, the serious mistake that has been committed here in the sale of your Slaves; especially of the little Children, since with great forethought on the part of Madam Stuyvesant, your Honor's spouse, they were presented at the baptismal Font. If we had had the least knowledge of the Fact, the mistake would not have occurred. To my grief, a great error has been committed which I fear is irreparable; for so long an interval has elapsed, it will be very difficult to ascertain where they have been finally landed. But I shall have inquiries made by the first Ship that leaves here for Carthagena and Porto Bello, and if it be possible, endeavor to get them back, even if I should have to give two full grown Slaves and more for them.

A SHIP, named Miss Catarina, whereof Jacob Dircksen Willree is Skipper, arrived here on the 14th January last, from Ardra, on the Coast of Guinea, with One hundred and fifty Slaves. She was sent in the Service of the Company from Amsterdam to the Castle del Mina to Mr. Valckenburgh with some Supplies for that place, and succeeded very well, notwithstanding many English Ships were off that Coast.

Since my last, I have fold here to the Genoese (genueseen) all the Slaves which had come here on the Company's account in the last Ships and were remaining at this place @ One hundred and twenty pieces of Eight. And because of these English troubles, and principally because no Slaves were expected here from the Coast of Guinea, the aforesaid Genoese have taken their departure hence with their Ship and the abovementioned purchased Slaves, on the 23d January last for Carthagera. We shall learn betimes whether this trade shall be renewed in Holland with the Company, or whether it will be pursued and continued at this place by other Spaniards.

I have, since that, been informed that the Principals of the abovementioned Genoese in Spain have contracted with the Royal Company of England for the delivery of Slaves, such delivery to be made at the Island of Jamaica, and that a large Ship belonging to the said Genoeſe has already arrived at Jamaica, to carry away the Slaves, according to the Contract concluded with the Royal Company. But inasmuch as no Slaves had reached there for the Royal Company, they were allowed to purchase as many Slaves from the English Planters and Inhabitants as they were to receive. In regard to this Contract, all Commissions of Privateers and Ships against the Spaniards in these West Indies are revoked, and they are forbidden to inflict any damage on the Spanish Nation by land or water; and when a rich Spanish Prize was brought by the English Privateers into Jamaica, they were obliged to restore her, free of costs and charges.

I doubt if this English Royal Company will be able to fulfill their Contract with the Genoese, if it be of any magnitude, in consequence of the disturbances and troubles caused by themselves on the Coast of Guinea and the great obstruction they will encounter as long as these troubles continue, in their Slave Trade and in all their other Commerce, from the Privateers of Holland and Zealand, of which they have had, hitherto, no suspicion.

We see now here for the second time a Comet with a long fiery tail; it has been visible here for more than two months past. It is also visible in Europe. What it portends is best known only to the Chief Giver of all Good, who will mercifully turn away from us all
